

Chris Crane

President and Chief Executive Officer, Exelon Corporation

Exelon Corporation is the nation's leading competitive energy provider. Headquartered in Chicago, Exelon does business in 48 states, the District of Columbia and Canada. Crane oversees a family of companies representing every stage of the energy value chain, including Exelon Generation, one of the largest competitive U.S. power generators, with more than 32,700 megawatts of owned capacity comprising one of the nation's cleanest and lowest-cost power generation fleets; Constellation, which provides energy products and services to approximately 2 million residential, public sector and business customers, including more than two-thirds of the Fortune 100; and Exelon's six utilities, which deliver electricity and natural gas to approximately 10 million customers in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey and Pennsylvania through its Atlantic City Electric, BGE, ComEd, Delmarva Power, PECO and Pepco subsidiaries.

Crane previously served as president and chief operating officer of Exelon Corporation. In that role, he oversaw one of the U.S. industry's largest portfolios of electric generating capacity, with a multi-regional reach and the nation's largest fleet of nuclear power plants. He directed a broad range of business including major acquisitions, transmission strategy, cost management initiatives, oversight of major capital programs, generation asset optimization and generation development. Crane has worked in the nuclear industry in progressively more responsible positions for more than 30 years.

Crane is an acknowledged leader in the electric utility and nuclear industries. He is chairman of the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations, the industry organization promoting the highest levels of safety and reliability in nuclear plant operation, and a vice chairman of the Edison Electric Institute. He is former chairman of the Nuclear Energy Institute, the nation's nuclear industry trade association. He also is a member of the board of directors of AEGIS Insurance Services, Get In Chicago, the Greater Washington Partnership, and the Economic Club of Washington, D.C.
